

French Market Music Stage at Satchmo Summerfest 2010!

"West End Blues" Stage at Governor Nicholls & French Market Place will feature live music from 2-7 PM on Sat., August 7 & Sun., August 8th

Check www.frenchmarket.org or www.fqfi.org for full schedule

Brass bands move throughout the Market both fest days at 1:30 PM
"Big Butter and Egg Man" Brass Breakfasts at the Market Cafe 1000 Decatur St. 8/7 & 8/8 from 9-11 AM

Congratulations to the first annual "Seeking Satch" contest winners!

All Seeking Satch finalists will play onstage at Satchmo Summerfest's "Trumpet Tribute" August 8, 2010 at 6:30 PM. Please come out and offer your support for these young talented trumpet players!

SENIOR AMBASSADORS:

First Place: Terry Gibson Jr.,
Warren Easton High School

Runners-up: Hasani Arthur
from Brooklyn, New York,
Jonathan Richardson from Gautier, Mississippi, and Jacob Dupre of Baton
Rouge, Louisiana

JUNIOR AMBASSADORS:

Grand Prize Winner, 9-11th Grade: Doyle Cooper, 11th grade, New Orleans Center for the Creative Arts (NOCCA).
Band Director: Michael Pellerera.

Grand Prize Winner, 6-8th Grade: John Michael Bradford, 7th grade, Haynes Academy for Advanced Studies.
Band Director: Marlon Jordan.

First Runner Up, 9-11th Grade: Cameron Dugas III, 10th grade, De La Salle High School. Band Director: Michael Orkus.

First Runner Up, 6-8th Grade: Herman Williams IV, 7th grade, McDonough 15 School for the Creative Arts.
Band Director: Kelvin Harrison.

PARK IT AT THE MARKET

Easy convenient parking at the French Market parking lots during Satchmo SummerFest. Three lots located within walking distance: along the Riverfront, off Esplanade, and off Elysian Fields.

SIGN UP FOR FRESH NEWS!

Visit www.frenchmarket.org for maps, directions and a full listing of shops restaurants Flea and Farmers Market hours and info.

WWW.FRENCHMARKET.ORG